SAID PASHA.—The company is a good one. All the singers are completely at home with their music and their acting leaves nothing to be desired. The signing of Frank Valerga as "Terans," the man in search of the ideal woman, was always well done and pleasing as was that by Miss Somers, Miss Marchi, and Mr. Frillman, Fred Lennox and Stanley Felch the comedians, were uproariously funny and their fun is of a keen enjoyable kind. The scenery which the company brings with it is magnificent, although but little of it could be seen last night on the very small stage. The costumes are rich and costly, and the entire performance was excellent and worth seeing a second time. The leading characters are in the hands of such well known artists as Alice Gaillard, Ada Somers, Kate Marchi, Mamie Grey, Marie Braggezzi, John E. McWade, Stanley Felch, Francis Gaillard, Frank Valerga, W. H. Frillman, Fred Lennox, Fred Urban M. Cornell and others. The chorus numbers sor y well trained voices, and the orchestra will be increased to twenty.—Ex.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHE.—Mrs. S. C. Wright gave a very pleasant card party Friday evening at her residence, and the cardboards were shuffled, cut and dealt with the following result: Mrs. John M. Dormer, lady's first prize, a handsome card case. C. H. Galusha was awarded the gentleman's first prize, an elegant silk handkerchief. The booby prizes were finally secured after a hot contest, by Mrs. C. N. Noteware and Dr. Lee, the former receiving a delicately painted sea shell and the latter a pair of lovely scent bags. The collation, which came immediately afterwards, was an epicure's standard, and the thirty invited guests departed in time to see the electric lights go out.

A KICKER ANSWERED.—An exchange says: "Why don't you run a paper like that?" asked a merchant to a publisher, throwing down a blank-sheet city daily. "Why don't you run a store like that?" retorted the publisher of the country daily, as he turned the paper over and pointed to a full-page advertisement that each issue brought the city publisher $250. Just then the country publisher presented a monthly bill for $5, and the merchant began to talk of economizing by cutting down his advertisement and stopping his paper. He did both, and the Sheriff is now doing his advertising for him.

ANOTHER NEVADA RAILROAD.—There is a general feeling in this city, says the Salt Lake Tribune, that at an early day a railroad will be started west from Salt Lake to tap the rich mining districts of Western Utah and Eastern Nevada. A Good Suggestion.

C. M. Taylor of Genoa suggests a new plan for the ranchers and mill men to settle their pending litigation. His plan is for both parties to take the money that will, according to present appearances, be spent in litigation and use it for the construction of a large flume to run almost direct from Rodenbah's to the mills. This he claims would carry one third of the stream at low water, which would be sufficient to run the mills, considering that there would be but little waste or evaporation, as the water would run that distance in a flume in about one-sixth of the time required for it to flow down the regular channel. This would leave the ranchers two thirds of the stream for irrigating purposes. Courier.

It is said that there will be a scarcity of firecrackers this year in consequence of trouble and strikes. The supply in this country is very small, and not more than 450,000 boxes can be imported between now and the 1st of July. However much this news will disappoint Young America, will be hailed with delight by those who no longer express their patriotism by firing off this noise-producing invention.

The dance to be given by the Capitol Brass Band, is the first of the kind given in this city for several years. The music will consist of twelve pieces, all brass, under the leadership of Mr. Al Lindsay. Several overtures will be rendered during the evening. Tickets, $1 50, can be had at all the principal business houses in town.

The grenade exhibition last evening was not a very brilliant success, as Jack Furlong opened the bottles in the afternoon and substituted water for the extinguishing mixture. Furlong is notorious for jobbing everything he gets a chance at. Another exhibition will be given shortly.
